

Mother of God School Scholarship Program

Mother of God School seeks to make a quality Catholic Education attainable by providing need-based scholarships to as many families as possible

Fr. Francis Martin Scholarship - $4,000

The Mother of God School in honor of its beloved Fr. Francis Martin, priest and scripture scholar, has established a scholarship in his name. The scholarship recognizes his special love for the Mother of God School and is awarded to a deserving family.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Scholarship - $3,250

The Mother of God School in honor of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton has established a scholarship in her name. Elizabeth Ann Seton founded the first Catholic girls' school in the country. The scholarship recognizes her love for teaching Catholic youth and is awarded to a deserving family.

Mother of God Community Scholarship - $2,500

The Mother of God School in honor of its sponsor, the Mother of God Community, has established a scholarship in the Community's name. The scholarship recognizes The Mother of God Community's special love for Catholic education and is awarded to a deserving family.

St. John Neumann Scholarship - $1,750

The Mother of God School in honor of St. John Neumann, the patron saint of our parish neighbor St. John Neumann Catholic Church, has established a scholarship in his name. The scholarship recognizes St. John Neumann's special love for Catholic education and is awarded to a deserving family.

Presidential Scholarship - $1,000

The Mother of God School has established a Presidential Scholarship to assist deserving families who are committed to Catholic education for their children.

Archdiocesan Match Scholarship

The Archdiocese of Washington (ADW) provides limited tuition assistance. The first level of assistance from Mother of God School is to match the ADW award, doubling the assistance families receive.
